New Stephen Ministers

Welcome to our newly commissioned Stephen Ministers Sharyn Greytak, Jo McMurtrie and Joe Tully! They join Mary Maddrey, Lucy Sutter, Rob Gray, Vic Sowers, Gayle Gordon, Julie Taylor and Karalee Kludzuweit.

Stephen Ministers provide one-to-one Christian care, in a confidential manner, to an assigned care receiver, who is experiencing life concerns, difficulties and/or losses.

Joe Tully, Stephen Minister

I am a relatively new member of First Presbyterian, having joined the church in 2023. I was raised in Queens, NY, and prior to moving to Aiken in 2021, was a longtime resident of Pennington, New Jersey. My wife of 37 years, Donna, and I are the proud parents of our daughter, Colleen, and son-in-law, Dan, who have gifted us with three beautiful granddaughters. Our family is rounded out with our adopted dog named Artie.

An employment career in institutional asset management has facilitated my participation in the Stewardship, Endowment and Finance Committees of our church. Post-retirement, I also served as an adjunct professor of finance at both Rutgers University and USC Aiken, and participate currently as a pro bono, external advisor for the UNICEF Financial Advisory Committee. My interests are running, golf, and completing the authorship of my draft novel within my lifetime.

I joined First Presbyterian Church of Aiken because it best encapsulated the spirit of my previous place of worship, the Pennington Presbyterian Church. There, my faith was lovingly nurtured, and grew from reluctant attendee to committee assignments, Eldership, and lastly, the chair of Deacons during COVID.

My decision to become a Stephen Minister was an impulsive one, which likely means that it was Spirit-driven. The training I received will reward me with opportunities to advance Jesus' healing ministry, and has provided a new set of tools to be a better husband, father, friend and Christian.

Sharyn Greytak, Stephen Minister

I moved to South Carolina from Ohio 15 years ago when my husband, Gil, accepted an accounting position in this area. We have two sons: Ryan, a psychiatrist practicing in California, and Scott, an attorney living and working in Washington, D.C. Before retiring, I spent many years working as a speech-language pathologist in the school system, a profession I found both challenging and rewarding. In retirement, I enjoy traveling, participating in book club, dinner clubs, gardening, attending a wide variety of cultural and community events here in Aiken, and spending time with friends.

I'm fortunate to be involved with several local organizations. I assist adults in developing literacy skills, help with the annual Joye in Aiken arts event, and actively participate in P.E.O., a philanthropic educational organization dedicated to raising funds to support women's education.

Faith has always been an important part of my life. I have been a member of several Presbyterian congregations over the years and joined First Presbyterian Church almost two years ago. It has been a joy to be part of this community, teaching Sunday School, assisting with Vacation Bible School, and participating in other church ministries.

My interest in the Stephen Ministry program was sparked by my brother, a Stephen Minister and Leader in Hilton Head. Hearing him speak about the fulfillment he found in offering Christian care to those facing life's challenges and the valuable skills he gained through the program resonated with me.

Since beginning my own Stephen Ministry training, I've been grateful for the opportunity to grow both personally and spiritually. The program has equipped me with practical, time-tested strategies for providing compassionate, Christ-centered care and support to individuals on a one-to-one basis, who are experiencing a variety of difficult issues in their lives. I've learned so much from our dedicated leaders and fellow trainees and deeply value the experiences I've had through this ministry. I look forward to continuing to serve and grow within both this congregation and the broader community.

Jo McMurtrie, Stephen Minister

I grew up in Iowa. I met and married Ted in Charleston. We have 3 grown children and 5 grandchildren. Our son is living with us. Our younger daughter is in Alabama with her husband and their 2 children. Our older daughter lives in Switzerland with her husband and their 3 children. I am a retired teacher with most of my years teaching kindergarten. I love children's books, traveling, sewing, quilting, camping, being outside and spending time with our children and grandchildren.

I grew up in the church. My parents were quite active in church, so I accompanied them to many activities. As an adult, I have worked on various mission projects in different churches as we have moved around with the Navy - building houses in Mexico, building relationships in Mexico and Haiti and participating in collecting supplies for schools in Haiti. When visiting First Presbyterian Aiken last December, we felt very much at home and decided to make it our church home.

I have always enjoyed listening to others and their stories. I also very much enjoy helping others; a trait I believe was modeled all my life by my parents. The Stephen Ministry Training has been a great time of learning and reflecting. I believe I will find being a Stephen Minister challenging but also very rewarding.

Morning Prayer

A 30 - minute service of scripture, prayer, and the Eucharist, from The Book of Common Worship - Daily Prayer.
We meet every Wednesday morning
8:45-9:15 in the Sanctuary.
Starting

Hope to see you there.

WELCOME NEWBORN BABIES!

Be sure to let us know if you are expecting a new baby, grandbaby, or great-grandbaby in your family! Some of our Presbyterian Women have made beautiful knit baby items which we'd like to share with you for your new family member! Let us know before the arrival time, so you'll have the gift ready to deliver at your convenience! Please contact Robbie Knox to ask about getting baby items or with your questions and suggestions.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Please join us for one hour on the third Tuesday of each month. We will be meeting from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m. in the PW Productions Room (#27) on September 16th. We can get you started on making a prayer shawl while we share ideas, tips, fellowship, and prayer! You can also be a part of this ministry through your handwork at home. Please call Robbie Knox for details. Our Prayer Shawl Ministry started in the fall of 2007, and so far we have made over 950 prayer shawls, and over 918 have been given away. We continue to pray for all those who have received a prayer shawl. Prayer shawls are available to give to anyone -- church members and those who are not members of our church. Please let us know of someone who might enjoy receiving this special gift from our church.

Please contact Robbie Knox to ask about getting a prayer shawl or to see how you can help!

New Book Study

Thursday, September 25 at

in the fellowship hall. We will meet every other Thursday to discuss a book that we can read together. The first book is The Little Liar, by Mitch Albom. This is a great book with lots of emerging themes of truth, honesty, and relationships. The book can be purchased on-line or at a local bookstore. Let the office know if you need us to order a copy for you. We'll include Advent and Lent studies in addition to other titles throughout the year. Jan Eubank, Chris Erde, and Beth Yarborough will be leading this discussion. Be sure and get it on your calendar. For more information, call the church office or email Beth at bethy@aikenpresbyterian.org

On Friday, August 8, PW provided lunch for the Women's Build of Habitat for Humanity. Amy Gray coordinated, delivered, and set up the lunch items in a buffet style. About 15 workers helped themselves at the work site on Catawba Street.

Both the morning and evening gathering members provided food. A list of the items prepared/furnished follows:

24 chicken salad sandwiches, 18 ham and cheese or pimento cheese sandwiches
24 bags individual chips/pretzels
2 gallons iced tea, 2 gallons lemonade, water and ice
12 brownies, 12 cookies
Grapes and watermelon slices
A vegan salad
Left overs were delivered to Nurture Home.

PW has participated in this event for over 10 years and welcomed the opportunity to assist once again. We look forward to continued years of service with the Women's Build program at Habitat for Humanity. This program allows women experience in the construction trade. Owners are required to contribute sweat equity time during the build, and Amy and her helpers met the owner and one of her children that day.

BEAUX ARTS CHAMBER ENSEMBLE

Thursday, September 11, 2025

Fall Concert

is just around the corner! We welcome a very talented group of musicians. Join us on September 11th at Noon!

Juilliard trained violinist Erika Venable (associate concert master of Miami City Ballet Orchestra)

Professor of Palm Beach Atlantic University cellist Claudio Jaffe (principal cello of Palm Beach Symphony)

Steinway Artist Tao Lin (visiting professor of Shanghai Normal University and faculty at Bowdoin International Music Festival)

Program will include the famous Cafe Music by American composer

Paul Schoenfield.

Cafe Music took root in the composer's experience in filling in for a friend as the pianist of a trio that played regularly in a restaurant in St. Paul. Primarily intended as live background music for diners, the trio performed pieces from early 20th-century America and late 19th-century Vienna. The idea presented itself to use the thematic styles, harmonies, and typical gestures of this thrice-familiar music as the basis for an original work for the same ensemble -- violin, piano, and cello.

Calling All Singers and Ringers!

Do you love to make a joyful noise? Now is the perfect time to get involved in our church's music ministry! Choir Rehearsals begin Wednesday, September 3rd at 7:00 PM in the choir room. Whether you're a seasoned singer or just love to sing praises, we welcome all voices high and low!

Handbell Choir Rehearsals start Wednesday, September 24th at 5:30 PM. No experience necessary—just a willingness to learn and ring for the glory of God!

Come share your talents, grow in fellowship, and be a blessing through music.
All are welcome—bring a friend!

Minister Thoughts

Happy Fall Y'all! I know that "officially" it's not fall until September 22, however, school is back in session, college classes have started, the Cubs are locking down a playoff slot, and there's football on the tv, so...Happy Fall Y'all!

I love this season of the year because I get to see people coming home to FPCA on Sunday mornings. The past few weeks the pews have been a little fuller, the smiles bigger, and the laughter louder, it's been great, it's been fun, so if you haven't made it back yet, come join in!

Officially our FPCA Fall Kick-Off Cookout is Sunday September 7, right after worship on the west lawn and in the Fellowship Hall. We'll enjoy fellowship, fun and games for the kids, plenty of good conversation, and I'm sure boatloads of smiles and laughter!

Hopefully everyone's had their opportunities to rest and recharge over the summer, now it's time to rally together for the ministries God has planned for our congregation. This is a wonderful time of year, filled with hope and excitement for our future because we know that God isn't anywhere near done with using us to share love and grace in Aiken and beyond. So, with the strength that is born of hope, let's use this year's Kick-Off Day as our re-set, our day to each re-claim our place at FPCA, and to re-commit as active members in the congregation we all love! I'll see you soon!
Chris

THANK YOU

Dear First Pres. Family:

Over the years you have been so incredibly gracious, supportive, loving, and compassionate with me through a range of difficult times – from cancer to accidents to the loss of beloved animals. And you have celebrated all the good things with me with equal generosity! I hope you know how much it means to me to know you are always there. From your caring calls, cards, prayers, and prayer shawls, to the sharing of food and sanctuary flowers, you have lifted me up more than you can realize. I am deeply grateful for your continuing kindness.

Long overdue ... hugs all around,
Marti Healy

Dear FPCA,

Many thanks for the prayers, food, and flowers sent for my pup, Oatee, and I as we each were recovering from accidents that involved stitches! But we're now both on the mend!

Praises be!

Thanks,
Dee

Dear First Pres,

I am grateful for my church family for all your get well wishes, birthday cards, lovely flowers, and prayers for the family.

Thank you all so much,
Marjorie Milne
